Links to Audio, Webinar, and Recording Services I Personally Use

Here is a link to the teleseminar recording company I personally use for my conferences:

You can also use:

www.thebasementventures.com

www.freeconferencecall.com

I use http://www.gotowebinar.com and http://www.gotomeeting.com to host my webinars.

I use http://mizesean.audioacrobat.com/ for my 3rd party or telephone recording.

Also, here is a link to try out the wavepad mp3 editing software I personally use:

Keep in mind, with these products, I am not advocating that they are better than any other product or service, they simply happen to be the ones I personally use and am happy with.
